

GERMANS GET TERMS APRIL 26

President Wilson Will Be On Hand To Present Terms To The Germans.

(By Associated Press)
The conflicting claims for the city of Fiume and the Dalmatian Coast by Italy and Jugo-Slavia, will probably be decided upon soon by the Paris peace conference, if efforts made by the Italian delegation bear fruit. This controversy has been one of the most troublesome before the conference and has aroused much public sentiment in Italy.

Today's advices from Paris to Washington, however, assert that a very satisfactory progress at the conference is being made. Meanwhile, according to President Wilson's plans, the allied terms of peace may not be laid before the Germans before Saturday of next week, and it may not be until the following Monday that the enemy will learn the details of the treaty they will be asked to sign.

This will delay the proceedings to some extent, and it is not believed that the German delegates can go to Weimar and receive instructions and return to Paris before May 8th.

When the peace treaty is handed to the Germans, only President Wilson and the allied Premiers will be present. The Germans will be allowed to ask questions to elucidate any points, but nothing approaching the discussion of the terms will be permitted.

Premier Clemenceau who had previously refused to agree that Russia might be fed through the neutral nations, has receded from that stand. The food situation in Russia is said to be critical.

BETTER ACCEPT ALLIED TERMS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, April 18—Havas—Military experts under the direction of Marshal Foch, have been charged with drawing a report on what should be done should Germany refuse to sign the peace treaty. The indicated methods of coercion which the allies would adopt may include the occupation of more German territory, the blockade of enemy ports and the discontinuance of the food supply shipments to Germany.

LIEUT. ROBT. BURNAM LANDS IN NEW YORK

A telegram was received by his wife here this afternoon that Lieut. Robert R. Burnam, Jr., had just arrived in New York from overseas where he has been with the American forces since September. He returned as a casual and after going to a hospital in New York for the usual period, will in all probability be sent to Camp Taylor to be mustered out. The home-coming for Lieut. Burnam will undoubtedly be a very joyous one, for besides his wife and family and host of friends, a handsome young son, who bears his name, arrived about a week ago and is waiting here to welcome his daddy, too.

GIVE GOOD GROUNDS FOR PUNISHING THESE HUNS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, April 18—By French Wireless—Fifteen thousand women have signed a petition asking punishment for the Germans responsible for deportation of women from Lille, Roubaix and Turcoing in the spring of 1916 and who were forced to submit to the most odious treatment. The petition will be handed to the Peace Conference. It recites that to prevent such crimes from ever being perpetrated again, "we demand that those guilty of them be punished like ordinary criminals; both those who issued the order from Berlin and those who executed it in the most brutal way." The signers include Madame Gaston Calmette and Mrs. Anna Roosevelt.

TRIED FOR 15 YEARS TO FIND A RELIEF

Long Suffered Case of Stomach Trouble Gone Since Taking Meritone.

"I have tried for 15 years to find a medicine that would help me but Meritone is the first one that ever brought me any real benefits," said Mrs. W. H. Whitson, of 601 West Short street, Lexington, Ky.

"My stomach was all out of order," Mrs. Whitson continued. "Gas would form on my stomach and would pain me so much that I just didn't know what I would do. Nothing I ate digested right. My nerves were affected and kept getting worse until finally the least noise would excite me and I could hardly sleep at night."

Had Long Sought Relief

"For fifteen years I have been trying to find a medicine that would help this condition but nothing that I tried brought any results. So many people praised Meritone, however, that I decided to try it."

"I feel that I should state for publication how Meritone has benefited me so wonderfully, for I feel that everybody should know about it."

"Since taking Meritone my stomach is back in perfect order. I can eat anything I want without gas in my stomach afterward or any trouble afterward at all. The indigestion is gone. My nerves are better also and I sleep fine at night."

Meritone is being highly recommended by hundreds of people for ailing conditions of the stomach, liver, kidneys, catarrh, rheumatism, sleeplessness or lack of appetite.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Richmond by H. L. Perry & Son.

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR EASTER SUNDAY

All Richmond Churches Have Specially Prepared Programs for Morning Services and Large Congregations Are Expected

Every church in town has prepared a special musical program to commemorate Easter Sunday, in solemn memory of the Resurrection of the Christ, the Savior of a lost world.

The musical talent of the city that has been selected to render the programs at the various churches, has been practicing diligently for the past few weeks. "TANKS" WILL BE HERE THURSDAY

Manned By War Crew, Whippet Type Tank Will Be Here—Everyone Should See It

The Victory Loan committee has received information that a "whippet" style, real bona fide, battle "tank" made by Uncle Sam to vanquish the Huns, will be seen in this city on next Thursday, May 1st.

The tank which will arrive at 11:30 a. m., weighs six tons and is manned by two soldiers from the U. S. Tank Corps. It is an exact copy of the famous French Renault tank and upon its arrival will go through the exact maneuvers that have made it famous on the fields of battle.

Loan Chairman Burnam has made arrangements for a parade to meet the tank corps on its arrival from Lexington and if the crawler climbs up a building or runs through a house, don't be surprised. It will surely let the people know it has been around. Accompanying the tank will be some prominent speakers who will make an address in the interest of the Victory Loan and a large crowd is expected to attend from all over the county.

Means Much To Farmers

The farmers of Madison county should realize how much the Victory Liberty loan means to them. No class of citizens is so vitally interested in it as they. They have the same interest as others in upholding the credit and honor of the United States in supporting business and industry and in completing the tremendous task we undertook to save civilization and to bring an end to the war.

A large part of the loan will be used to maintain the price of wheat and other farm products to the producers.

Take the wheat question. It is not unlikely that a dollar a bushel will represent the difference between the guaranteed price which producers will receive and the value of the wheat in the world's market. Should our national crop reach 1,100,000,000 bushels, it would mean more than a billion dollars of this loan would be paid back to the farmers directly for wheat over and above the market value of the grain. Surely money by bond issues or else by increasing the already high taxes, in which event our citizens will be called upon to contribute in form of taxes the amount which must be raised, getting a tax receipt instead of a government bond bearing a good rate of interest.

But self interest is not the only nor the best appeal to make to the patriotic producers of the United States. What they did in the way of production when the government called on them for help, and what they have done in previous loans, especially their wonderful help in the Fourth Liberty Loan, shows that patriotism is the strongest appeal that can be made to the American farmer. This appeal is now being made to them to take a large share of the Victory Liberty Loan.

LOYD-GEORGE RETURNS TO PARIS

Paris, April 18—With the return of British Premier David Lloyd George from his London visit for the House of Commons speech the council of four comprising the British, French, and Italian premiers and President Wilson resumed deliberations today at the Paris White House.

DELCO LIGHT PROVES POPULAR

The Madison Electric Company which was organized several weeks ago by Fred Davison and Robert Telford, report the sales of two Delco lighting plants this week. One was sold to John Mason, of the Duncannon section, and another to Robert Dunn, of Terrill.

The Delco lighting system is proving very popular among the rural homes as it gives to the people living in the country the same good light that is afforded to the city folks at a very low cost.

LAST APPEAL FOR STARVING JEWS

The cause of Jewish Relief is making its appeal to the people of Madison county. If there ever was a worthy cause this is one. Think of what the Jews have done for the world! The Bible and the religion we hold so dear came through the Jewish race. These people have suffered untold horrors during the war and since the war. Millions are starving. Will you not do your part in helping to relieve their distress?

Several teams from the city have gone out today to assist the country teams in securing their quota. Their work will go far toward putting Madison beyond the goal of $3,200.

He Says To Get Him To Drop School Book Suit—Gov. Stanley Won't Tell What He'll Do About An Investigation of Charge

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., April 18—Except to say: "You wouldn't tell a man what you intended to do to him, would you?" Gov. Stanley today refused to say if he would order an investigation of the charges made by Prof. Weathers, of Franklin, plaintiff in the suit to annul the state text book adoption that Weathers was offered a $3,000 job to drop the suit. "He didn't make any specific charge," said the Governor.

Prof. Earl Weathers, of Elkton, who filed suit to nullify the work of the State Textbook Commission in changing the schoolbooks of the state, made a sensational charge yesterday to the effect that he was offered a $3,000 official position not to bring the suit. The Commission has filed an answer to the suit brought against it by Mr. Weathers. A dispatch from Frankfort yesterday said that the commission denies the right of Prof. Weathers to bring the suit against it inasmuch as he is a citizen of a town of the fourth class, whose schools and patrons of the schools are not affected by the acts complained of. In replying to the allegation concerning the Grinstead speller, the answer says that the specimen books indicating the size, color, weight, finish, binding, thickness and quality of paper were filed with the commission along with galley proofs which "showed the character and type, subject matter, and arrangement of contents." This likewise applied to the physiology of Dr. W. L. Helzer and Webster's modern history, the commission's answer says.

R. E. SALLEE BUYS FARM IN LOUISIANA

Robert E. Sallee, who recently went to Charleston, S. C. to accept a position with the Mason and Hanger Company, has resigned, and has gone to Jennings, La., with his family where he will engage in rice planting on a big plantation he recently bought in that great rice country. Mr. Sallee intends to devote his entire time to farming and while his host of friends here regret that he is not to return, they are sure that he will make a big success for there are few men more capable and energetic in every way than popular "Bob." Before going with the Mason and Hanger organization, Mr. Sallee was assistant postmaster of this city and was a good one.

SNOW STORM STOPS FLYERS WHO WILL ATTEMPT OCEAN

(By Associated Press)
St. John's Newfoundland, April 18—A driving snow storm effectually stopped the activities today of the aviators waiting here to attempt the transatlantic flight. Harry Hawker, the Australian pilot, and Capt. Frederick Raynham, the British driver, watched each other for indications of a secret start.

COLLEGE HILL

Mrs. Eliza Ginter celebrated her 59 birthday at College Hill Tuesday with a delightful spend-the-day. A delicious dinner course was served, consisting of turkey, old ham, salads, cakes and frozen desserts. The table was beautifully decorated with Easter flowers. The guest of honor was Mr. James Ginter, who has just returned from France, where he spent nine months in the service of his country. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. John Hiale, and family, of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Griggs, and family and Miss Lillian White, of Lexington.

Mr. A. P. Bush and daughter and Misses Nettie and Fannie Barnett, of Vaughn's Mill, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ginter, of College Hill. The day was very much enjoyed by all present and all wished for Mrs. Ginter many happy returns of the day. She was the recipient of many nice presents.

Mrs. James Asbell and daughter, Margaret Lee, of Middletown, Ohio, visited friends here last week. Charles Webber and Clarence Boggy have been doing quite a lot of business for the last 10 days, selling and trading horses. These hustling young men went to Cincinnati and purchased 25 head of well broke horses and brought them here and put them on sale. They sold 11 horses in one day. This was quite a help to our neighborhood as so many people were wanting horses to work and to drive. Miss Ida Norris bought a nice buggy horse. G. L. Edwards purchased a nice buggy horse, and Everett Witt bought a nice saddle horse.

Mrs. Eliza Ginter went to Lexington Wednesday, shopping. "Rookwood" is the magic password to the Lodge of Better Coffee. Join today by consulting Brother D. B. McKinney, the grand rajah of the Rookwood Brotherhood. 116tf

Women Find Clear Skin In Simple Laxative

A sense of false modesty often prevents women from admitting that many of her ills and disorders are due primarily to constipation.

But women who know themselves have learned that headache remedies and beautifiers only cover the trouble but do not dislodge it.

What is needed is a remedy to move the bowels and stir up the torpid liver. An ever-increasing number of sensible women take a small dose of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold by druggists under that name.

It will save a woman from the habitual use of headache remedies, skin lotions and similar makeshifts. Once the bowels are emptied and regulated, the headache and the pimples and blotches disappear. It is the rational, natural method.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin lasts a family a long time, and all will find use for it from time to time. Thoughtful people are never without it in the house.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 26 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

THE BARGAIN

—AND IT'S WELL WORTH YOUR WHILE!

Through special arrangements with the manufacturers, and during this Bargain Week only, a beautiful, useful, and substantial set of Cooking Ware will be given with every Majestic Range sold. This ware is good ware (not cheap ware)—it's worth a lot to you. Come and see for yourself.

And Remember—

The price of a Majestic Range this week will not be increased and there will hardly be a great reduction for years to come, if ever, but there may be an increase soon.

TWO NEW AND IMPORTANT FEATURES

The Wonderful Unseen Riveting—

Yes, it's rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nicked parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads holding are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

IF YOU HAVEN'T A MAJESTIC, AVAIL YOURSELF OF THIS OPPORTUNITY TO GET ACQUAINTED WITH THIS WONDERFUL RANGE—KNOW THE INSIDE OF RANGES

Oh, Joy! Top Needs No Blacking

A smooth, highly polished cooking top, burnished blue, not only adds to the beauty of the Majestic, but absolutely eliminates the work, dirt, and worry of trying to keep the range looking nice—just an occasional thin coat of paraffine retains its beautiful velvet blue color.

Normal School Notes
(By W. B. Trooper)

Prof. C. A. Keith is another busy member of the Eastern Normal faculty. He is again delivering commencement addresses as he has in previous years, and has made the following engagements, so far:

April 26th at Stanton.

May 9th at Berry.

May 14th at Millersburg.

May 15th at Whitley City.

May 16th at Junction City.

May 17th at Corinth.

Those who know Prof. Keith and have heard him speak, know that he will leave in the minds of the people and students as well, facts and suggestions that will follow them throughout life.

The physical training classes under the supervision of Prof. C. F. Miller are doing some work worth while. The young men of the Normal are beginning to realize how important physical training is along with education or book knowledge. The young men are taking great interest in this work and by this term end, they hope to have learned several gymnastic feats, games, etc., which they will be able to pass on to the pupils whom they come in contact with in the rural schools of Kentucky. Without good health education is worthless. So our advice to the young men and women of Eastern is to get into this physical training class every afternoon or take part in mass mQV.....gtathahetSHRDLUFU in base ball or other outdoor sports.

Miss Roberts, at a meeting which all of the girls of the Normal were required to attend, gave her regular term lecture the past evening. From this lecture the girls learn just what the faculty of Eastern expects of them. She also gave to the girls some suggestions as to their mode and customs of living.

The Teachers' Bureau, with Prof. C. R. Keith at its head, is beginning to get in touch with the students of Eastern who are looking forward to a position of teaching this coming summer. This department is beginning to grow. Prof. Keith is receiving applications practically every day for good teachers.

Chapel was lead yesterday morning by Dr. Wren J. Grinstead, who has been attending the educational conference which was held by the Middle States Educational Association in Atlanta. This conference lasted three days. Dr. Grinstead in chapel, gave to the student body and members of the faculty some idea of the work which is being done by this association.

Misses Alma and Mary Lear have returned from Lexington visiting friends there.

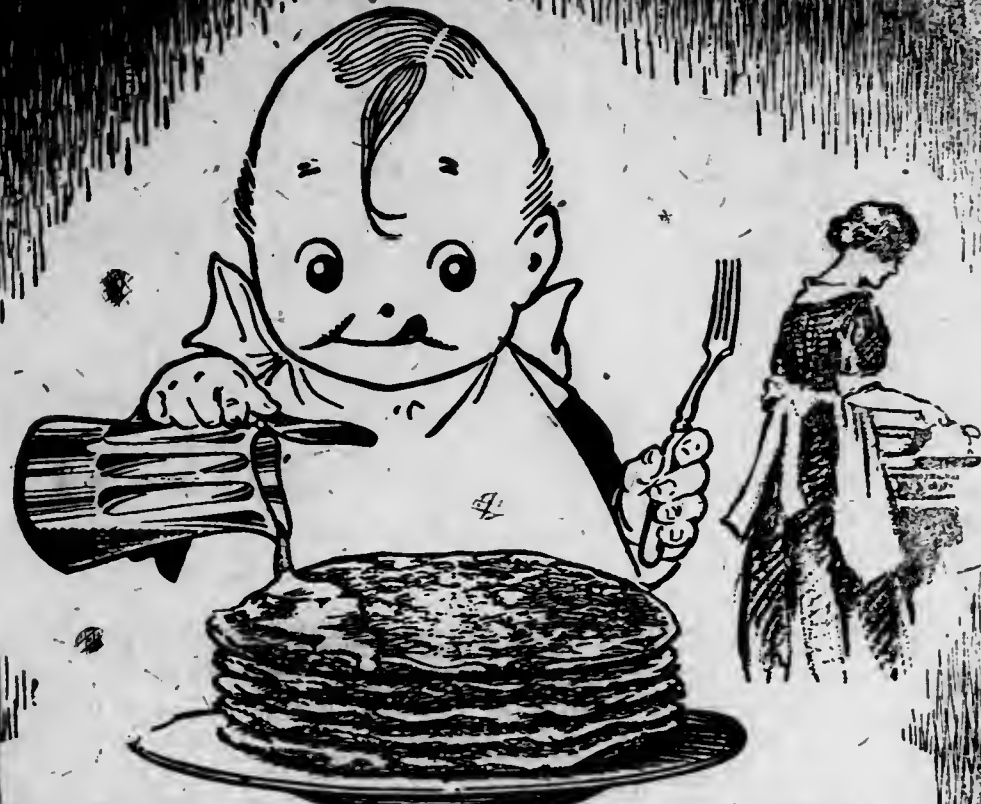

Heard About Town

Green Clay, formerly of Richmond, a well known newspaper man and magazine writer, who for some time has been connected with the Indianapolis newspapers, is in the city, the guest of relatives and friends. Mr. Clay is a nephew of Miss Laura B. Clay, noted equal rights leader of this city, and a grandson of the late General Cassius Marcellus Clay, of White Hall, Madison county.—Lexington Leader

Mr. Allen Whittaker has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Whitaker, on Broadway, for a two weeks visit. He will leave Friday for Camp Sherman where he will undergo an operation at the Base Hospital.

Miss Dorothy Weaver entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening in honor of her sixth birthday.

Friends deeply sympathize with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, in the death of their little daughter, Mary, who died Sunday afternoon after a brief illness of measles. She was loved by every one and will be greatly missed in the home circle.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

The greatest advancement ever made in the manufacture of baking powder—so perfectly made that you're always sure of the very best baking results. Its leavening strength never varies. The last spoonful as good as the first. No failures. It raises the quality of your bakings and reduces baking costs.

It is sold at a moderate price and you use only half as much as of most other powders.

A product of the world's largest, finest, most sanitary baking powder factory. Used in the U. S. Army and Navy—by the most eminent Domestic Scientists—in more homes than any other brand. Its superiority has made it America's leading seller.

CALUMET GRIDDLE CAKES

2 —Level cups flour
2 —Level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1/2 —Teaspoon salt

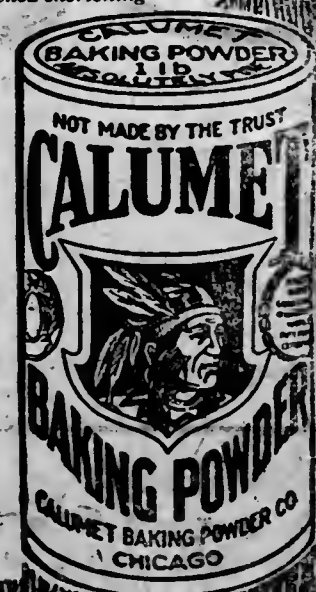

1 —Level tablespoon sugar
2 —Level tablespoons melted shortening
2 —Eggs, yolks
1 1/2 —Cups milk or water

How to Make Them: Mix dry ingredients in flour. Beat egg yolks and melted shortening in the liquid, add only a part of the liquid, mix until smooth. Then add gradually the balance of the liquid until batter is of the proper consistency. According to the strength of the flour more or less liquid is required. Bake on hot griddle well greased.

Paste in your Recipe Book for future reference.

Have You Noticed This?

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16 oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

The Joy of Motherhood Told

Women Tell How They Made Event One of Great Happiness.

In every part of the land there are women who tell how, through the application of Mother's Friend, they entirely avoided the suffering usually incident to motherhood. They relate in no uncertain terms how from the day the babe was born, without the usual suffering experienced when nature is unaided, and how they preserved their health and strength to devote it to the rearing of their children and to the things life holds for them.

Mother's Friend is a most penetrating remedy, prepared especially for expectant mothers from a formula of a noted physician. Strain upon the elements is avoided, and instead of a period of discomfort and constant dread it is a season of calm repose. The hours at the crisis are less, and Mother's Friend enables the mother to retain her natural grace, and her skin is not cracked and does not become hard or discolored.

C. P. Willoughby left Wednesday night for Atlanta and Bringham where he will be gone for several days on business.

J. Morgan Evans, local live stock dealer, returned Wednesday from a business trip to Baltimore and other Eastern cities where he has been in the interest of his business.

The horse belonging to Hon. W. B. Smith became frightened while standing on the street yesterday and ran off tearing up the carriage considerably. No one was in the carriage at the time.

Mr. G. C. Clark is at Mt. Jackson sanitarium for a ten days stay.

Col. P. M. Pope, Madison's popular roofing factory agent, had the pleasure of selling a big block of his goods to John E. Madden, the famous farmer-turkman of Fayette county, last week.

Anderson Agee, the popular young deaf-mute, entertained four of his former school mates of the Kentucky School for Deaf as his guests Tuesday night, and all enjoyed their visit immensely. They were Charlie Johnson, of St. Helena, Joe Burns, of Beattyville and Ernest Shearer of Irvine.

Miss Martha Yates McKee left last week for a few days stay with friends at Lebanon, after which she will resume her school work at Aronstoke.

Sounds Good, Anyway

Lieut. Col. Henry Denhardt, of Bowling Green, the latest entry into the democratic gubernatorial stakes, is going to make the race on a platform which will strike a popular chord, to say the least, and those who know Denhardt know that he will "make good" on everything that he says, too, and that his platform will mean something more than those of most politicians, just "something to get it on." In his announcement, Denhardt says:

"My purpose, if nominated, and elected governor, is to devote my energies to giving Kentucky business administration and to assist in the development of the resources of every section of the state. I will not waste my time in bartering offices for increased power. During my term of office I will not be a candidate for any other office nor will I build up a machine to further the interest of myself or any one else.

"I will hold the pardoning power as a sacred trust and no friend will profit by the exercise of it, and no man will be able to influence me to use it to punish or reward.

"I will not appoint any man to office who is not honest and capable, with a clean public and private record. I will not retain any

"If elected I will be the servant of the people. Every cause will be heard on its merits and every citizen, regardless of party affiliation, will be treated with courtesy and consideration."

Many people have been predicting a campaign against tobacco, coffee, tea, and perhaps chewing gum, or other "nasty" or drinks which may have habit-forming tendencies, now that old booze has been safely and securely laid away for all time to come. We have doubted this, however, and are glad to note a dispatch from New York which says that emphatic denial of reports that the Anti-Saloon League of New York was planning an anti-tobacco campaign has been made by William H. Anderson, superintendent of the organization. "The Anti-Saloon League," he said, "has absolutely nothing to do with any such movement and has never contemplated any activity against tobacco and will not engage in any anti-tobacco movement."

Vegetable Compound that made me so well. It is certainly a good medicine for every woman. I cannot say too much in its favor, and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. W. Phillips, 5430 Kingsessing Avenue, West Phila., Pa.

BEFORE OR AFTER INFLUENZA

By Dr. M. Cook

The cool fighter always wins and so there is no need to become panic-stricken. Avoid fear and crowds. Exercise in the fresh air and practise the three C's: a Clean Mouth, a Clean Skin and Clean Bowels. To carry off the poisons that accumulate within the body and to ward off an attack of the influenza bacillus, take a good liver regulator to move the bowels, such as Castor Oil or a pill made up of May-apple, leaves of aloe and root of jalap, to be had at any drug store, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The system should be built up by the use of a good iron tonic, such as "Iron-Tonic" tablets, to be obtained at some drug stores, or that well-known blood-maker and herbal tonic made from roots and barks of forest trees—sold everywhere as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

For a tonic that will freshen up the blood, clean the digestive tract and put new force and vim into you, I know of nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and it contains no alcohol or narcotic so is perfectly safe to take.

New Orleans, La.—"I could not eat anything greasy for it would make me so sick at my stomach that I could not do my work. It would make me dizzy, and I would have to sit down and wait until it passed away. Then there would be sour things. I was told to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I did, and I must say that it cured me. I have not felt any of this trouble ever since. I would recommend this remedy with all faith to all who have dyspepsia."—Jules Gervais, 2740 Frenchman St.

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.

When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstoping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again. Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Go to your drug store to-day, get a bottle of S. S. S., and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century. S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. You can obtain special medical advice regarding your own case without charge by writing to Medical Director, 22 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

PAINT AS AN ASSET.

Bankers Say They Lend More Money on Property When Buildings Are Well Painted.

AN INDICATION OF THRIFT.

One Concern Advances 25 Per Cent.
More if Repainting is Done
Every Five Years.

Does it pay to paint carefully farm buildings? Does it add to the selling value of a farm when buildings are properly kept up and regularly painted?
A careful inquiry of a number of leading bankers in the Mississippi valley, including such states as Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, reveals the fact that in nearly every case the bankers did not hesitate to say that they would lend all the way from 5 to 50 per cent. more on land where farm buildings were well painted and kept in good condition.
They maintain that well kept-up and well painted buildings and fences are an indication of thrift and that the thrifty farmer is a good client, and to him money can be safely loaned. An average of the returns from these bankers shows that the increased loan value because of painted buildings is around 22 per cent.

Some of these bankers make interesting comment. A Michigan concern says that, while not especially prepared to advise definitely in response to this inquiry, the officers would loan more money on farms where buildings were painted than where they were not so treated. This bank also finds that where houses, barns and fences are well taken care of the farm is a profitable proposition, and bankers in general consider the farmer a good client. Another Michigan bank says "farm buildings out of repair and needing paint indicate that the owner is slow pay." Such farms are rated at about one-third of the assessed value for loans. Where the farm buildings are in good shape the rating is one-half. The president of a middle western bank says that when real estate loans are considered, painted buildings are always taken into consideration in making an estimate. The general appearance of the property surrounding the house and barn and also the fields and fences would be carefully observed.
He further says that he has no hesitancy in saying that he would absolutely refuse a loan on farms where the buildings were not kept up and well painted. In his judgment, unpainted farm buildings would reduce the loan value at least 25 per cent.

A Minnesota banker says that he is much more willing to loan money where the buildings are well painted.
In his particular case he believes that he would loan 20 per cent. more than if the buildings were not properly taken care of. A farmer who will keep his buildings painted takes a much deeper interest in his work than one who does not. Another Minnesota bank says that well painted buildings have resulted in securing from his bank sometimes as high as 25 per cent. more money than where the buildings are not painted. An Ohio concern says that it will loan 25 per cent. more money on a well kept farm where buildings are painted at least once every five years. A southern Illinois bank says that it has no fixed rule about this, but it does make a decided difference when owners of farm lands apply for loans. If the buildings are well painted and thus well preserved the loan rate would not only be cheaper, but the amount of money borrowed would be larger. A northern Illinois bank does not hesitate to say that it would loan fully 50 per cent.
more on a farm where buildings were well painted and in good order than where they were not. The vice president, who answers the inquiry, goes on to say: "There probably are many farmers good financially and morally who permit their buildings to remain unpainted, but as a rule the most substantial people who live in the country keep their buildings well painted."

An Iowa bank, through its vice president, states that it would make a difference of at least 25 per cent. in favor of the farm with painted buildings. Another Iowa concern says that it would make a difference of at least 20 per cent.

All this being true, it is perfectly evident that it is a good business proposition to keep the farm buildings well painted. They not only look better and are more pleasing to the owner, but the farm would sell to better advantage, the loan value of the property would be greatly increased and the buildings themselves would last much longer and need less repair.—The American Agriculturist.

MANAGER AND AUCTIONEER

For Governor of Kentucky

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS—

Candidates for governor are springing up in many sections of the state and people of our county should bear in mind that Mercer has a favorite son who aspires to be the State's chief executive. I refer to Col. P. J. Noel, so well and favorably known here. The people of other counties have met in mass convention to endorse their fellow citizen who aspires to this high and honorable position, and I can see no reason why Mercer county cannot do likewise. Mr. Noel is a young man, whose success in just 25 years has been phenomenal. He is superintendent of the Kentucky Central Life and Accident Insurance Company, which, under his help and efficient management, has grown to be the State's largest industrial organization. In spite of his business success, he has not grown selfish, but is a philanthropist, whose good deeds redound to his credit. It is said he is the owner of the finest collection of firearms in the world, and his challenge stands unaccepted. The powers that be in Mercer county should not let an opportunity go by to endorse this splendid business man and gentleman. I would suggest that a mass meeting be called to endorse him, for every man who is acquainted with him, knows that he would bring his business acumen to bear in the management of state affairs that at present seem to be in a rut, and his efficiency and big success in the insurance line is a sure indication that he has the ability to fill the office to which he aspires in a way that is sure to redound to the relief of the now over-burdened taxpayer, and also with honor to himself.

Respectfully,

A DEMOCRAT.

COL. P. J. NOEL.

Col. Noel is a native of Harrodsburg, who has risen to prominence in the state through his unusual business success, his philanthropic deeds and his handsome and expensive collection of firearms. He is a candidate for Governor of Kentucky, and the following items clipped from newspapers in various parts of the state will be of great interest to people in his home district, and will show them how he is regarded in other sections:

"A Subscriber" in the Bowling Green Times-Journal, of April 17, 1917, says:

"The work of no philanthropic organization in the city and county has shown so great a number of concrete examples of service for the weak and afflicted as that of the organization of physicians, dentists and specialists, which, in connection with the city and county boards of education, have agents under employment looking after school children who are handicapped because of defective eyes, ears, teeth or some other physical infirmity. Under the operations of this organization, many children have been treated and sent into the schools with the handicap removed.

"Recently it was discovered that there were 35 cases of trachoma, a contagious disease of the eye, within the limits of the county. It was necessary to cure these defects in order that the contagion might not spread, and that the children might be continued in school. The organization took up the matter, and engaged the services of Dr. Winkler, of Lexington, one of the most noted eye specialists in this class of diseases in the South, to come here and perform the necessary operations, hoping to raise the money by giving a grand charity ball. The receipts from the entertainment were disappointing and failed to bring the necessary funds.

"But, as is always the case when a crisis arises, the man of the hour arose, and by a subscription of $100, the entire amount was raised. The Man of the Hour in this case proved to be Col. P. J. Noel, the Superintendent of the Kentucky Central Life and Accident Insurance Company, who came forward with the amount, stating to the writer that his purse was always open to such a worthy cause, and that he was glad to show his appreciation to the good citizens of this section for their generous patronage, which had enabled him to become financially able to do this benefaction.

"Men like Col. Noel make us glad that we live in such a city and such a county, where man is estimated above the dollar, and where true philanthropy is the watchword.

"I am writing this for publication without consulting the generous donor, but I feel sure the citizens will be glad to know that we have among us such a public spirited man."

(The Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., Tuesday, June 19, 1917.)

"In the rush of after dinner Monday afternoon in recording the new subscriptions for the moving kitchen for Company A, a very unfortunate error appeared in recording the gift of one of the largest donors to the fund. The article was made to read: 'P. J. Noel, $25.00,' when it should have read 'Col. P. J. Noel, $25.00.' Col. Noel, the donor, is head of the Central Life and Accident Insurance Company, and he is one of the most liberal givers in the city. The error is greatly regretted by the management of the Times-Journal but Col. Noel, when seen by a reporter, laughed and said it did not make any difference as he did not give the money for any notoriety, but because having been a soldier once himself, he was for the movement heart and soul. When told by a Times-Journal reporter, the deep regret for the error, Col. Noel said: 'Don't worry about it. I know errors will appear in papers; in fact, all of us make errors. I did not give the money for any newspaper notoriety, but because of the great benefit I know will accrue to Company A, and I sincerely want the boys to have this moving kitchen. I have given myself and I know the many hardships in front of the home boys. If the public will just respond promptly and adequately I will feel good for I want the boys to have this blessing. If every one knew as I do what it will mean to them, the sum would be subscribed before night.'

"Col. Noel is the kind of citizen Bowling Green needs more of. He has never failed to contribute to a worthy cause. When the school clinic was started some months since, he freely gave $100 and last week gave $25 to the work of the Y. M. C. A. While the writer knows Col. Noel did and undoubtedly his generosity has been much greater but being a modest, unassuming man, he undoubtedly would not tell of these things."

(The Red Cross War Bulletin, Bowling Green, Ky.)

"Col. P. J. Noel will give $10 in gold—$5 to the first person who presents him with a copy of the Red Cross War Bulletin, which they have purchased, and $5 to the person turning into the Red Cross Committee the largest amount of money secured from the sale of the Red Cross War Bulletin."

"Col. Noel says: 'Let us win the war by a strong drive for the Red Cross, the great humanitarian organization. Let every man, woman, boy and girl do his or her part.'

"If you cannot go to the front, do your part by buying Liberty bonds and War Savings Certificates."

(The Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., May 22, 1918.)

"Chairman Nahn, of the Y. M. C. A., was much gratified today when he received a check from Warner Hines for the neat sum of $50 for the fund, and also the contribution of $100 from Col. P. J. Noel, for the same fund."

Col. P. J. Noel, the Man of the Hour, Takes $10,000 in Liberty Bonds

(The Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 16, 1918.)

Patriotism is an attribute of the heart, because its underlying principle is love.

It is impossible for a selfish man to be a patriot, for the simple reason that he lacks this one great qualification.

It has been truly said that every workman is known by his work. So the man whose work is reflected in the hearts of his fellow countrymen is the man whose efforts are the most appreciated.

When the Committee of the Fourth Liberty Bond Issue found that it was necessary for many individual subscriptions to be greatly increased, it appealed to the patriotism of those among us who were financially able to give this increase.

The high mark was set at Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

The first man to answer that appeal is Col. P. J. Noel, Manager of the Kentucky Central Life and Accident Insurance Company.

This, however, will not come as a surprise to those acquainted with the Colonel, as he has always been one of the most liberal subscribers to all public and charitable enterprises.

While we regret that we can only claim Col. Noel as an adopted citizen of Bowling Green, we still have the satisfaction of knowing he is a native Kentuckian.

He was born on a blue grass farm in Mercer county, and as a young man taught school in his home county.

During the Spanish-American war, the same pluck and patriotism that prompted him to lead our honor roll in bond subscription, led him to volunteer his services to his country as a private soldier.

It is the true American spirit that today has overwhelmed the autocracy of the German Empire.

This same unselfishness that has made the Americans the moral heroes of the world conflict.

In talking with Col. Noel about his personal history, he gave a very amusing account of his financial condition in 1893.

He said that the strain had gotten intense; in fact, uncomfortably near

P. J. NOEL
Of Harrodsburg, Mercer County

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE—

After due consideration, and fully cognizant of the responsibility and importance of the undertaking, I have decided to become a candidate for Governor of the State at the Democratic Primary Election, August 26, 1919. That the voters may know how I stand on important issues of the day, I submit the following as my platform:

Business Administration

"Big business, less politics, but enough of politics to make big business good," is the slogan.

Progressive big business, efficient management and the stoppage of leakage are the three fundamental principles upon which our State Government should be managed.

Agriculture

The great and ever increasing industrial centers of the World will continue to demand a greater supply of the farmer's productions. To meet these greater demands, it will be necessary for the farmers to increase their production by progressive farming with all modern facilities necessary to meet such requirements. Over-production declines prices; under-production increases prices but the ever-increasing wealth of the farmers will place them in a commanding position to stabilize prices and to look after the interest of the local consumer. Prosperity of the farmer means prosperity of the State and Nation, beautiful country homes, country schools, good country roads, highways and byways. Having labored on the farm and in the tobacco fields for more than ten years when a young man, I will pledge myself, if I am elected Governor, to be on the job in promoting and protecting the interest and welfare of the farmer.

Public Roads

Good State and county roads will never be successfully constructed and improved when left to county building alone. The strong man should help the weak man. A good road in a bad territory is just as essential to the people living in that territory as a bad road in a good territory would be detrimental to the people living in that territory.

Capital and Labor

Capital and labor cannot exist without the co-operation of the other, and this may be one of the many problems for the next State Administration to be called upon to meet and adjust. Capital and labor should always stay harmonized. Capital should not squeeze the hand and heart of labor; labor the life of capital, from selfish motives should not deprive capital of her just rights and dues. The one impaired by such acts means prosperity to neither.

Our Soldiers

No good gift is too good for a soldier. They will be recognized as a great benefactor for all time to come, in the future prosperity of Kentucky. Life, liberty, pursuit of happiness and prosperity are guaranteed and won by the soldier.

Independent Vote

The independent voters of the State are made up of many of our best citizens and deepest thinkers and are many of our best business people. I most respectfully solicit their help and influence in the coming Democratic primary, and if nominated, their hearty support in the final election.

Woman Suffrage

Woman, by an amendment to the Constitution of the State, ought to be granted free and equal right to vote, and then execute that right when the welfare of the State or community demands it.

Liquor Question

The fight for prohibition is not finished yet. After birth, the infant must be clothed, fed and educated, and, if elected Governor, I will pledge myself to take up and commence the work now left unfinished and to prosecute it to the fullest extent of my mental and official capacity to the end of a perfect solution.

Education

Good teachers, good rural district schools and good colleges, are the foundation of good government, law, order, pursuit of happiness and prosperity. These are the most essential fundamental principles necessary to prepare and train our children and future generations for the coming blessings which they are to receive. A good job must be done with good tools and good workmen, and to accomplish such, the State should provide with facilities, good pay, good educators and the prompt payment of teachers' salaries on the day when due.

Pardons

The power conferred upon the Governor by the Constitution of the State to grant reprieves and pardons, to remit fines and forfeitures and commute sentences, should be exercised judiciously in promoting the efficiency of the law and not exercised in abusing or obstructing the execution of the law. If I am elected Governor, I will exercise this power judiciously and discriminately in promoting the efficiency of the law.

Non-Partisan Judiciary

I am absolutely for a non-partisan judiciary of the State, and am in favor of any improved changes in our elective system, by which this reform may be accomplished by electing the best men on the bench through non-partisan votes.

Non-Partisan Institutions

I am unequivocally for a non-partisan management of the charitable and penal institutions of the State. I am opposed to any partisan management, because I believe that competent and faithful men to handle the local affairs of these institutions can be best secured by not adhering to partisan lines.

Conclusion

With these convictions and a patriotic ambition and a clear knowledge of the responsible duty which binds a person to a sacred public gift or trust, I am now submitting my candidacy for the nomination for the Governorship of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, and the approval of my opinions of some of the present and likely important future issues of the day.

P. J. NOEL, Harrodsburg, Kentucky.

to the breaking point, when, one day, he was called upon to meet a subscription of $5 he had given to the church.

His collaterals were greatly depleted, his one remaining money-raising security being his watch. He pawned this treasured article for the forth-coming five-spot, and made good his debt of honor.

Col. Noel's home town is Harrodsburg, Ky., and after reading an article in the Harrodsburg Herald in which the gratitude of the entire community was extended to him for a beautiful gift to the Christian church in memory of his mother, who died when he was a small boy, one can well understand why philanthropy and unselfishness are two of his characteristics.

The man who honors the memory of his parents is an advantage to any community.

All men with individuality possess some kind of hobby. In this connection The Sporting Goods Dealer, one of the leading American periodicals of its kind, says that "Col. P. J. Noel, of Bowling Green, Ky., is the owner of the most valuable and expensive collection of firearms in the country."

It also mentions the fact that the Colonel is a rifle and pistol shot of great ability, and goes on to describe at length some of his most unique and valuable possessions in firearms.

In April of last year, Col. Noel through the National Sportsman, issued a challenge to the world, as owner of the finest and most effective firearms outfit in the world, and up to this time that challenge has remained unaccepted.

Col. Noel says his greatest pleasure is found in the "Great Out-of-Doors" and that the "ring of a rifle in the woodlands is music no song writer can write."

The Liberty Loan Committee wishes to here publicly express its appreciation of Col. Noel's subscription.

FRIEND PLEASED WITH LOCAL COMMENT

(Times-Journal, Oct. 26, 1918, Bowling Green, Ky.)

The following letter has been received by Col. P. J. Noel and reads:

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1918.

Col. P. J. Noel,
Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Colonel—

Thank you very much for the interesting article taken from your local Times-Journal. It should certainly be very gratifying to you to know of the high esteem in which you are held in your community. The remarks are such that any man might feel highly honored and proud to receive.

The fact that no one has accepted your challenge, issued in April last year, indicates quite conclusively that your firearms outfit in general, is superior to anything else in the world. Of course, you had the advantage in making this collection, of incorporating into the construction of most of these arms, your own personal ideas which is greatly responsible for the value and effectiveness of the collection.

As I told you some time ago, the company has been engaged for the past two years in the manufacture of the Lewis machine gun for the U. S. Government, and until such time as we are able to complete all of our government work, we will make no sporting arms whatever. Of course, if any of our Savage outfit requires special attention at any time, you have only to inform me and I will see if there is not some way in which we can take care of it.

With kind personal regards and very best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

CHESTER A. SMITH.

CELEBRATED WITH $5,000 RIFLE 363.

(Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 11, 1918.)

Col. P. J. Noel celebrated the signing of the armistice this morning by turning loose with his handsome $5,000 363 Savage rifle. Col. Noel used only blank cartridges and paraded the city, discharging it until the barrel became hot. The gun is among the finest in the world. It is gold-mounted on Circassian walnut stock, and the barrel is elaborately engraved. The work is the highest art of engraving and designing. It is one of a brace of six owned by Col. Noel on which he challenges the world, but which challenge has never been accepted.

He also displayed a brace of Savage gold-trimmed automatic pistols. Each contains an extra magazine, and will shoot eleven times. They load almost instantly.

COLLECTION OF FIREARMS.

(Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., May 24, 1915.)

The following complimentary article with reference to the collection of firearms of Mr. P. J. Noel, of this city, Superintendent of the Kentucky Central Life and Accident Company, is taken from The Sporting Goods Dealer, a monthly magazine:

"Perhaps the most valuable and expensive collection of firearms in the country belongs to Mr. P. J. Noel, of Bowling Green, Ky. It differs from most of the other well-known collections, however, for the reason that Mr. Noel is an amateur rifle and pistol shot of great ability, and consequently all his beautiful weapons, instead of being obsolete relics, are of the most modern and effective type.

"Savage arms are special favorites of Mr. Noel and he has Savage rifles of almost every model and caliber in which they are made, and several Savage pistols. Every one of them is a work of art, made, checked, plated, engraved and inlaid according to his personal directions, so that each one is as original as it is beautiful.

Mr. Noel's latest rifle is shown in the accompanying half-tone. It is a .22 Savage model, 1914 tubular repeater. It cost $235. It has fancy Circassian walnut stock and slide handle with the dull London oil finish and checking of special design. A fac-simile of Mr. Noel's signature is inlaid in gold on top of the receiver. The elaborate engraving on the receiver is of Mr. Noel's own design, squirrels being shown on one side and partridges on the other. The squirrels and partridges inlaid in gold against the dark blue of the receiver are especially attractive. The pistol grip is capped with pearl, all the screw heads are gold plated, as is the trigger, and the entire action is stoned, which not only adds to the beauty of the parts, but imparts a silky smoothness to the operation of the action that must be felt to be appreciated. The rifle certainly is a credit to the taste and discrimination of its owner, as well as to the workmanship of the manufacturer."

(Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky., March 21, 1918.)

Col. P. J. Noel this morning displayed his unexcelled collection of firearms at the Business University and delivered a most interesting lecture upon them. This is said to be the most interesting and most expensive collection of guns and pistols to be found in the hands of any individual in this county. The collection runs up into the thousands of dollars in value. Some of the guns are of such rare make and mechanism that duplicates cannot be found or even made at this time. One of the guns was eighteen months in making; several others twelve months. The gold plated pistols costing $500, attracted marked attention of the students and faculty. The hunting knives, the forty-two blade knife and his field glasses are specimens of rare and historic interest. The Business University is especially grateful to Col. Noel for the interesting and instructive lecture.
